

The Redstones™ Franchise

Franchise Application Form & Request for Further Information

Any joint applicant, other than spouse or life partner, whose name will be included in the franchise agreement, should complete a separate copy of this form.

Processing of this application cannot begin until all requested information is provided. Please enter 'N/A' in any boxes that you believe are not applicable in your case.
Please do not leave any box blank.

Completion of this application form represents a request for further information and places no obligation on either party to enter into an agreement for the subsequent award of a franchise.

We confirm that all information provided by you in this application will be regarded as confidential and will not be used for any purpose other than processing your application for this franchise and in the subsequent operation of the business.

The onus is on the part of the applicant to provide fair, true and accurate information and not upon the franchisor to discover such.

References will not normally be taken up without your prior permission.

On completion, please return the form to:-
